

Town of North Wilkesboro Citizen's Academy

The North Wilkesboro Citizens Academy is an in-depth look at the functions of local government from the citizen's viewpoint, designed to help citizens become more informed and involved in the community. Participation is open to residents and employees of the Town of North Wilkesboro and will be offered on a first come, first served basis with a class size not to exceed 20 participants. If you cannot attend this year or are wait-listed, then you will be at the top of the order for next year's Citizen's Academy.
